GLOBAL STUDIES

UA Aix-En-Provence

Global Studies students can satisfy their International Immersion Requirement by spending a semester or academic year in Aix-en-Provence, France! Located on the Mediterranean Sea, students will get to experience Provençal culture in a more intimate setting while still enjoying the elegance of a large metropolis. Aix-en-Provence is studded with hundreds of sparkling fountains and is known for its art, food, and Baroque architecture.

The University of Arizona partners with the Institute for American Universities to provide you with a study abroad experience that lets you choose from a range of courses for your major, minor, general education, and elective requirements. Students are required to take at least one French language course while at UA Aix-en-Provence in the Fall, Spring, or Academic Year terms, but you will have an assortment of levels to choose from. Whether you are a beginner or already have French language proficiency, this program is for everyone! Additionally, you'll pay your regular UArizona tuition and be able to use your financial aid, including AZ Excellence and Wildcat Excellence Awards in the fall and spring semesters!

Global Tracks

To make choosing your courses easier, the Global Studies Department pre-approved the following list of courses to satisfy certain thematic areas in your Global Studies major. Keep in mind that course offerings vary each semester and new courses are added often so if you find a course that's not on this list, that's okay! Consulting with your academic advisor is the best way to choose which courses you can take while abroad to ensure your schedule helps you progress toward your degree plan and graduation!
