

HUMAN DEVELOPMENT & FAMILY SCIENCE

Study abroad in Spain and see Human Development & Family Science through a global lens. At UA Barcelona, hosted by Institute for American Universities, you can choose from a variety of English taught courses to satisfy your degree requirements, including general education with the approval of your academic advisor. To make choosing courses even easier, faculty in the Norton School of Human Ecology preapproved courses to satisfy many of your Human Development & Family Science major requirements. Course availability varies per semester and can be subject to change. The best part is, you'll pay your regular University of Arizona tuition and can use financial aid and scholarships, including AZ Excellence and Wildcat Excellence awards!

The best way to plan for studying abroad is to work directly with your academic advisor. It's also important to remember that course offerings vary each semester so even with careful planning ahead, changes to your plan may need to be accommodated. See how studying abroad can fit into your degree with this sample plan created by HDFS advisors, including degree requirements and their corresponding credits. Remember, it's just an example and your academic advisor can help create a plan just for you!
