UA London

JOURNALISM

Spend a semester in England and study Journalism through a global lens. At UA London, hosted by St. Mary's University, you can choose from a variety of courses to satisfy your degree requirements, including general education with the approval of your academic advisor.

To make choosing courses easier, faculty in the School of Journalism preapproved courses to satisfy many of your Journalism major requirements. The best part is, you'll pay your regular University of Arizona tuition and can use financial aid and scholarships, including AZ Excellence and Wildcat Excellence awards! Course availability varies per semester and can be subject to change.

Always keep in mind that every student is on a different path towards graduation, so the best way to plan for studying abroad is to work directly with your academic advisor to discuss which courses will be best for your academic and professional goals.

Learn more about Global Tracks for your major, connect with your academic advisor, and start your study abroad application by visiting studyabroad.arizona.edu/global-tracks.

When choosing courses, always consult with your academic advisor. Course availability is subject to change and new courses are added often. If you see a course that is not on this preapproved list, that's okay! Your academic advisor can help you facilitate further course evaluations while you prepare to go abroad.
