EAST ASIAN STUDIES

Take your East Asian Studies major abroad to South Korea with UA Seoul, hosted by Hanyang University. Choose from a variety of English-taught courses to satisfy degree requirements, including general education, with the approval of your academic advisor. To simplify planning, the Department of East Asian Studies preapproved many courses to satisfy EAS major requirements.

You'll pay your regular University of Arizona tuition and can use financial aid and scholarships, including AZ Excellence and Wildcat Excellence awards! In addition, EAS majors are eligible for a variety of other study abroad scholarships.

Learn more about Global Tracks for your major, connect with your academic advisor, and start your study abroad application by visiting studyabroad.arizona.edu/global-tracks.

An East Asian Studies major builds cultural competence and global perspectives that strengthen career opportunities across fields—including STEM. Interested in learning more about our major? Meet with our East Asian Studies advisor. Remember to consult your academic advisors when selecting courses abroad.

Lower Division EAS Courses: The East Asian Studies major allows for only one lower-division course to count toward major requirements. Students are therefore encouraged to prioritize upper-division courses whenever possible. While the EAS minor offers greater flexibility with lower-division coursework, students are encouraged to consider converting the minor into a second major. For this reason, selecting upper-division EAS courses is generally the best option.
