UA Madrid

INTERDISCIPLINARY STUDIES

Spend a semester in Spain and your major through a global lens. At UA Madrid, hosted by the Institution of American Universities, you can choose from a variety of courses to satisfy your degree requirements, including general education and electives with the approval of your academic advisor. To make choosing courses easier, faculty in the College of Humanities preapproved courses to satisfy many of your requirements.

Course availability varies by semester and may be subject to change. Refer to the program webpage for current offerings. Learn more about Global Tracks for your major, connect with your academic advisor, and start your study abroad application by visiting studyabroad.arizona.edu/global-tracks.

UA MADRID COURSE	APPLICABILITY TO INTERDISCIPLINARY STUDIES
INT 341: Internship	ELCR Department Elective, Upper Division Satisfies GIU Emphasis or any additional emphasis elective with departmental approval (see advisor)

International Internship Option: The UA Madrid program offers the incredible opportunity to complete an internship abroad. When submitting your application, select the internship option to begin your placement process. Once you've received and accepted your placement, connect with your Interdisciplinary Studies major advisor to discuss which emphasis requirement is may satisfy.

Remember, every student is on a different path towards graduation so the best way to plan for studying abroad is to work directly with your academic advisor. To use the table of preapproved courses, please consult this key:

AMENT = Arts, Media, and Entertainment
ECI = Economy and Industry
GIU = Global and Intercultural Understanding
STHS = Science, Technology, Health and Society
SBHU = Social Behavior and Human Understanding
