

LIVE AND SCREENED PERFORMANCE

Study abroad in England and see Live and Screened Performance through a global lens. At UA London, hosted by St. Mary's University, you can choose from a variety of classes to satisfy your degree requirements, including general education, with the approval of your academic advisor. To make choosing courses easier, faculty in the College of Fine Arts preapproved classes to help you satisfy many of your Live and Screened Performance major requirements. The best part is, you'll pay your regular University of Arizona tuition and can use your scholarships and financial aid, including AZ Excellence and Wildcat Excellence awards! Course availability varies per semester and can be subject to change.

Fall Semester UA London Theater Program

Students participating in the UA London program for the Fall semester can participate in the bespoke Theatre program offered by St. Mary's University. This program is designed for students interested in theater arts and consists of the following 2 tracks: Acting or Creative Production. To apply for this program, please complete a regular UA London application and email your study abroad coordinator to let them know you are interested in this specific program.

Below are the courses you will take as part of this program. Please meet with your academic advisor to discuss how these courses will fit your degree requirements. Please note: Courses at St. Mary's University typically transfer to the University of Arizona at 5 credits each. The Industry Placement experience required in the Creative Production Track offers a total of 10 credits, in addition to the 5 credit London Theatre course.
