

National Student Exchange: Billing and Payment Policies

NATIONAL STUDENT EXCHANGE CHARGES

To participate in a National Student Exchange (NSE) program, each applicant is required to pay the following:

- ▶ NSE Program Fee
- ▶ UA Tuition and Fees

NSE Program Fee

Students must pay a non-refundable $200 NSE Program Fee. The NSE Program Fee is payable by credit or debit card at the time of application submission. The NSE Program Fee covers all services related to the administration of the National Student Exchange program at the University of Arizona and will be due regardless of whether a student accepts or declines their NSE placement.

UA Tuition and Fees

Students must pay their regular UA tuition and fees as part of their study abroad program. Please note: UA tuition and fees are calculated based on several factors, including residency status, number of units offered in your study abroad program, and guaranteed tuition rates.

Charges Billed by Host Institution

Students may have optional or mandatory host campus fees, which will be billed directly by the hosting institution. These fees may include, but are not limited to, course-related fees, laboratory fees, housing, and incoming NSE student fees. Students are responsible for determining what expenses are associated with their host institution.

BILLING

UA Study Abroad will bill UA Tuition and Fees to a student's UA Bursar's account in accordance with Bursar's dates and deadlines (<https://bursar.arizona.edu/dates/deadlines>) for the appropriate term.

Completion of the Commit to Program Form in UAAbroad following acceptance into a NSE program serves as the student's official financial commitment to participate in a National Student Exchange program. In the event that a student decides to withdraw from the program, the student's UA Bursar's account will be charged in accordance with the UA Study Abroad Withdrawal Policy:
